

Sammi Barber — Full Bio

Sammi Barber is a Canadian actress, creator, and on-camera personality based in Toronto, Canada. Her work spans film, television, digital entertainment, lifestyle, fashion, hosting, and branded storytelling.

As an actress, Sammi has appeared across feature films, television productions, short films, and digital projects. Her screen credits include Precious Cargo, Workin' Moms, History Erased, The Haunted House on Kirby Road, Groupies, Honeymoon in Paradise, Just Say It, His Obsession, Scarecrows, and Deadly Lessons, among other productions.

With a background that extends beyond acting, Sammi brings a versatile on-camera presence to creative projects. Her experience includes content creation, hosting, production, interviews, lifestyle content, and branded storytelling, allowing her to move naturally between scripted and unscripted environments.

Her work is driven by a genuine interest in people, storytelling, and the creative process. Whether working on camera, developing content, collaborating with a production team, or connecting with an audience, Sammi brings an approachable, energetic, and professional presence to every project.

Based in Toronto, Sammi is available for acting opportunities, interviews, editorial features, hosting, appearances, digital content, and select brand and creative collaborations.

For press, media, booking, and collaboration inquiries, please get in touch through her official contact page.